

Day 1	Brunch: Westway Diner Ground Zero 9/11 Memorial Museum Walk the Highline Chelsea Market Whitney Museum Walk around Central Park Exhibitionism Joe's Pizza
Day 2	Brooklyn Day Bluebottle Cafe Dave's Brisket Synagogue museum at Eldridge street Artist and fleas Brooklyn Lunch at M noodle (ramen) Brooklyn brewery free tour and beers after Big gay ice cream Dinner: prince street pizza Arthur's tavern (amazing jazz by local bands, free but you have to have a drink!)
Day 3	Top of the rock and tour of the Rockefeller centre Brunch: B&H dairy (so great for typical New York diner deli) Tenement museum (go and watch the free film in the foyer, we didn't pay for the actual exhibition) American museum of natural history Coffee: Levain bakery (the BEST cookies and coffee) Dinner: don antonio's pizza Avenue Q on Broadway Gelato: amino gelato Empire State Building (that late it's so empty)
Day 4	Brunch: Lexington candy diner Met Guggenheim Lunch: russ and daughters Museum of the city of New York
Day 5	MoMa Lunch: gramercy tavern (super posh but the best meal we had there) Intrepid sea and air museum (we paid more to go and see the space shuttle too!!) New York public library (because Ghostbusters) Grand central library Food stop: Magnolia bakery Beers and dinner: Valhalla - great little dive bar with hundreds of beers and some great bar snacks
Day 6	Walk some part down Brooklyn bridge Walk around Wall Street Dinner: artichoke pizza Circle line boat tour (really great!)

It won't be budget if you don't plan, and the best way to do it is to get a New York Pass! Get yours at <https://goo.gl/U7HfsX>